BADMINTON England Regulations for Pooled Tournaments

The method of deciding the winner of a group depends on the format of play.

- 1) In a group where each match is one game only, where setting is not permitted, the winner shall be:-
- a) The person/pair who wins most games.
 - b) If two players/pairs have won the same number of games the winner of the game between them.
 - c) If 3 or more players/pairs are still equal....the player/pair from among them for whom points won minus points lost is the greatest.
 - d) If two players/pairs are then equal the winner of the game between them.
 - e) If there is no winner under (d), or if three or more players/pairs are equal the player/pair from among them who wins the most points.
 - f) If two players/pairs are still equal the winner of the game between them.
 - g) If there is still a three-way tie the Referee must use his/her discretion.
- 2) In a group where each match is the best of three games, the winner shall be:-
- a) The person/pair who wins most matches.
 - b) If two players/pairs have won the same number of matches the winner of the match between them.
 - c) If three or more players/pairs are equal the player/pair from among them for whom the number of games won minus games lost is greatest.
 - d) If two players/pairs are then equal the winner of the match between them.
 - e) If 3 or more players/pairs are still equal the player/pair from among them for whom points won minus points lost is the greatest.
 - f) If two players/pairs are still equal ... the winner of the match between them.
 - g) If three or more players/pairs are still equal the Referee must use his/her discretion.

This represents the draw at 14:30pm 26th January 2012, but is subject to change. Please see www.badmintonengland.co.uk/compete for up-to-date information.
